

HIGHLAND IMPROVEMENT AWARD

Homeowners

HRA is proud to announce five more Neighborhood Improvement Award Winners for 2010. 911 Dalzell (top left) was set to be demolished before Dan and Lisa Marcalus brought it back to life; it is currently for sale. Also on the market is 2222 Fairfield (bottom right), which was elegantly renovated by Judy and Hal Miller, Jr. The home of Tom and Elizabeth Arceneaux (bottom right) was restored from top to bottom and retains many original features. Jessie and Carl Strasky, Jr.'s charming bungalow (middle left) has also won HRA's Garden of the Month Award for its inviting outdoor spaces, and Eric and Wendy Vance's foursquare (top right) has been beautifully updated as well. Congratulations to our winners!

**Attention Members**: HRA is pleased to have a growing number of members committed to the revitalization of the Highland neighborhood. Unfortunately, the percentage of our members who have paid their dues this year is quite small. Please take a look at the mailing label on this newsletter; if you are up-to-date on your dues, the date that you last paid your dues will be shown and we thank you for supporting HRA. If no date is shown, then we ask that you please consider paying your dues so that you will retain your active member status and continue receiving newsletters and other mail outs from us. We rely heavily on member dues to fund our many projects and activities that enhance and enrich historic Highland. Thank you for helping us improve our neighborhood!
